

Exhibitor's Guide - Tokyo Toy Show 2018

October, 2017

Message for Tokyo Toy Show 2018

We wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support of the activities of the Japan Toy Association.

We are pleased to enclose an “Exhibitor’s Guide” where you can find all of the details you will need for the Tokyo Toy Show 2018.

The Tokyo Toy Show 2017 welcomed 18,692 visitors at the Trade Fair (the first 2 days) and 128,345 visitors at the Open to the Public Event (the latter 2 days), (in total 147,037 visitors.)

The number of exhibitors amounted to 160 companies at home and abroad, including those exhibited at the “Kids Life Zone.”

It is our pleasure to announce that the Tokyo Toy Show 2018 will be held from June 7 to 11, 2018.

The venue of the show will return to the West Hall of Tokyo Big Sight.

(The venue of the show 2017 was temporarily moved to the East Hall (Hall 1-3) of the Big Sight, due to repair work of the West Hall.)

The show has had extensive coverage in the media, thus drawing overwhelming attention from society.

And the show has prominently increased its function as a major source for dispatching information concerning toys and hobby products.

We are convinced that the Tokyo Toy Show 2018 will provide you with an effective and unique opportunity for business negotiations for upcoming summer vacation sales, introducing new products for the year-end sales season, and for closer contact with toy users.

Please read the enclosed “Exhibitor’s Guide” for more information about the show.

We look forward to receiving your reply for advance booking of your space in the Tokyo Toy Show 2018.

Yours Sincerely,

Kantaro Tomiyama, Chairman
The Japan Toy Association

Masanobu Todokoro, Chairman
Committee of the Tokyo Toy Show,
The Japan Toy Association

2) Acceptance of exhibition and billing for exhibition fee

The Japan Toy Association will send an acknowledgment of application registration and an invoice to exhibitors who meet the conditions contained in this guide.

Payment of Exhibition Fee and Other Charges:

The exhibitors will be requested to pay the exhibition fee and other charges in full based on the invoice issued by the Secretariat of The Japan Toy Association. For foreign exhibitors, only bank transfer is admitted. Any other payment method such as credit card is not admitted. (Receipt will not be issued to the payment by bank transfer.)

Changes After Application:

1) Procedures

Cancellation of application for exhibition and reduction in supplied floor footprint for the exhibitor's own reasons should be notified by mail or by FAX. Such cancellation or reduction in floor footprint will become valid when received by the Secretariat of the Association.

2) Cancellation charge

A cancellation charge will be invoiced in case of a cancellation or reduction of floor footprint. The following rate will be applied;

Wednesday, October 4, 2017 to Thursday, November 30, 2017

Full amount of application fee and 50% of exhibition fee

After Friday, December 1, 2017

Full amount of application fee and exhibition fee

3) Nonperformance of Procedures

In the event an exhibitor fails to comply with 1) and 2) above, the Association will cancel the exhibition contract and will not accept applications of the exhibitor for subsequent shows.

No fees and charges paid by the exhibitor will be refunded.

Inability to Exhibit:

In case an exhibitor who has completed exhibition procedures fails to complete the decoration and display before the specified date and time, the Japan Toy Association will manage the booth instead.

The paid exhibition fee and other fees and charges will not be refunded.

The Japan Toy Association will not compensate for damage to the exhibitor caused through this cancellation or reduction in floor footprint.

Prohibition of Subleasing of Booth:

Subleasing of all or part of an allocated booth to a third party by an exhibitor or exchanging allocated booths between exhibitors is prohibited regardless of whether subleasing or exchange is for a consideration or gratis.

Prohibition of Sales of Exhibited Products:

At the Open to the Public Event on Saturday, June 9 and Sunday, June 10, exhibitors may sell their products as long as they maintain the spirit of the Open to the Public Event.

The Japan Toy Association is not responsible for any claims concerning the sales of the products. Complaints raised against products sold shall be dealt with by each exhibitor.

Only those foreign exhibitors who have their branch or agent in Japan which deals with claims for their products may sell their merchandise.

Each exhibitor is responsible for security and transactions of currency at his/her own booths.

The Japan Toy Association bears no responsibility for loss, in the case of damage from theft etc.

Display of Foreign-Made Goods:

When displaying foreign-made goods or using them for decoration purposes, please display them after clearing them through customs and converting them into domestic cargo on the exhibitor's side. (The show ground will not be bonded.)

Management of Booth and Storage of Exhibition Products:

1) During the Show, the Japan Toy Association will post personnel to manage the show facilities in good order.

The exhibitors are responsible for managing their booths.

2) Exhibitors must station personnel at their booths at all times to attend to visitors. Exhibitors are fully responsible for ensuring the safety of visitors and for managing their exhibition products.

3) The Japan Toy Association is not responsible for theft or loss of exhibition products in the booths or for accidents caused by a force majeure beyond its control.

Exhibitors are recommended to insure their products against loss or damage.

Limitations on Decorations Inside Booth:

The following decorations in the booths are prohibited.

If prohibited decorations are found, the exhibitors will be asked to remove them.

1) Decorations that are detrimental to the dignity of the venue as a whole.

2) Displays that offend against public order and decency or that defame and slander other parties.

3) Decorations that do not conform to the height limitation specified in the exhibitor's guide and to other conditions set by the Japan Toy Association.

4) Decorations that do not conform to the restrictions imposed by the fair ground.

5) Decorations that do not conform to laws and regulations.

Violation of an Intellectual Property Right:

When the Japan Toy Association receives complaints that exhibited products infringe someone else's intellectual property rights and, on examination, determines that the fact of infringement is highly probable, it is entitled to pull the suspected product or promotional item from the booth.

The above complaints shall be based on (1) patent, utility model, design right or trademark which are duly registered in the exhibitors' own name and remain effective in Japan, and (2) copyrights for which an author, the time of creation and constitution of intellectual creations of a work are evident.

The complainer shall provide relevant documentary evidence of intellectual property right such as a copy of valid certificate of registration, or utility model technical opinions issued by Japan Patent Office.

Cancellation of Show: Should the Japan Toy Association be prevented from holding the Show due to a calamity, fire or other force majeure beyond its control, the Association will refund the exhibitors amounts that are remaining after deducting necessary expenses. The Japan Toy Association is not responsible for damage to the exhibitors caused by cancellation.

Violation of Exhibition Regulation:

- 1) Should an exhibitor violate the conditions set in this guide or new rules to be established in the future, the Association will forthwith ask the contravening exhibitor to comply.
Any expense to the exhibitor as a result of this request shall be paid by the exhibitor.
- 2) In the event an exhibitor refuses to correct the situation, the Japan Toy Association will forthwith cancel the exhibition contract and will ask the exhibitor to remove the products and decorations belonging to the exhibitor from the show site.
All expenses incurred as a result of this shall be paid solely by the exhibitor. The Association will not refund the exhibition fee and other fees and charges already paid by the exhibitor.

Change in Exhibition Regulation:

- 1) The conditions contained in this guide were decided at a board meeting of the Association held on October 4, 2017.
- 2) Any new situation not taken up in this guide shall be studied, discussed and decided on each occasion at a board of directors meeting of the Association.
- 3) The conditions contained in this guide are subject to changes in the future.
The exhibitors will be notified by the Association each time a change is made.

Language and Currency of Show:

The official language in operating the Show will be Japanese and expenses will be settled in Japanese currency.

Payment of Expenses: Please pay the exhibition fee and other fees and charges in Japanese currency to the following bank account of the Association on or before the date specified by the Association.

Every bank charges (either local or recipients) for transfer of fund shall be for the senders' (exhibitors') account.

The Association will not issue receipts for transfers of fund to its bank account.

Ordinary Bank Account No. 0620447 of The Japan Toy Association at Oshiage Branch of The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi, Ltd.

Confirmation of Exhibition Conditions:

The exhibition applicants are requested to read this guide carefully and observe the conditions for exhibition when applying for booth/s.
